More News form the Lancashire Development Centre

On Wednesday 23rd April , Lancashire Development Centre supported Lancaster University Rugby Club in their preparations for the upcoming Roses game against York University .

Lancashire Senior XV backs coach Warren Spragg put the squad through their paces supporting the work done by Ed Spetch and his coaching team

This is another example of the work done by the Development Centre with a key area of the game , Student Rugby in the County .

On 1st May Warren and Phill Mills will deliver two 7s sessions at MMU as part of the same programme .

Lancashire Development Centre Manager Mark Nelson said

“ putting high quality coaches into the university environment to develop both coaches and players is a project unique to a Lancashire County , this is another great example of how we are supporting the game in crucial areas “

Good luck to Ed and the Lancaster squad in their Roses game .
